

TAKE away →

Thinking back to all your Christmas presents over the years which one stands out? What's the best Christmas present you ever gave?

What similarities between Santa and God can you list?
What dissimilarities?

How has consumerism, the idea that increased consumption of things is good, influenced you? What problems has it created? What benefits did it bring?

What is it about "getting what you deserve or earn" that is so appealing?

How does God's unconditional love affect your life?

God loves you perfectly-He can't or won't love you more based on what you do and he won't love you less based on what you do. How do you react to that?

TAKE away →

Thinking back to all your Christmas presents over the years which one stands out? What's the best Christmas present you ever gave?

What similarities between Santa and God can you list?
What dissimilarities?

How has consumerism, the idea that increased consumption of things is good, influenced you? What problems has it created? What benefits did it bring?

What is it about "getting what you deserve or earn" that is so appealing?

How does God's unconditional love affect your life?

God loves you perfectly-He can't or won't love you more based on what you do and he won't love you less based on what you do. How do you react to that?