

Take Away

What are your New Years' Resolutions and do any involve your relationships with others? If not, what is one you could add?

Do you think that 1 John 1:5-7 wants us to be in fellowship with everyone or just Christians?

How are you currently working to love others?

How do we balance loving others and personal boundaries (such as being taken advantage of) that some might like to cross?

Take Away

What are your New Years' Resolutions and do any involve your relationships with others? If not, what is one you could add?

Do you think that 1 John 1:5-7 wants us to be in fellowship with everyone or just Christians?

How are you currently working to love others?

How do we balance loving others and personal boundaries (such as being taken advantage of) that some might like to cross?