

TAKE*away*

1. How is your experience with Christ relevant to those around you?
2. How could you guard your experience with Christ from lacking authenticity?
3. Who do you know that would like to join you in your experience with Christ and why?
4. Name some experiences that you have had on your journey with Christ that you would say are “bigger than you.”
5. Within your experience with God, is it more rational and reasonable, or more emotional and imaginative? What steps can you take to balance that out?
